HOPE FOR THE FUTURE

By Sister Christine Hilliard, CSJ

The title for this edition was given to me at a time when world conditions did not illicit “hope” nor any sense that there would be a “future” to consider. In some areas, it seems that not much has changed. Yet, I can’t fathom trying to live together without hope or a witness to the future.

Then, as it happens, I received a reminder of God’s caring presence through hope and the future. On October 18th, my friend Robbie got a flat tire on his way to work. (Keep reading!) He had to replace the tire so he ended up missing work that day. That evening, after dinner, his daughter Rory, went upstairs and soon came back downstairs to where the family was gathered. She handed her father $50 from her piggy bank. He asked her what the money was for. She said because he couldn’t go to work that day, he couldn’t make any money; therefore, she wanted to share hers with him since she really didn’t need it. I realized that her selfless generosity was as an example of hope. Consideration of others first, then coupled with the spirit of giving is the energy hope needs. By the way, Rory celebrated her 7th birthday on November 22nd. Hope definitely has a future in her presence!
